

UNM International Amigo Master Scholarship

Acknowledgement of Conditions and Responsibilities

- 1) Scholarship offers made by The University of New Mexico Scholarship Office are intended for Main Campus and cannot be used at branch campus sites.
 - 2) If you choose to attend another institution at any time, this offer will be withdrawn. Furthermore, scholarship recipients who accept and enroll at the University of New Mexico and later choose to attend another institution will forfeit the award.
 - 3) If you accept this scholarship, you are required to maintain this scholarship by:
 - Maintaining enrollment in and completing 9 credit hours each semester.
 - Grades of W, WP, WF, WNC, F, NC, I, Audit, and NR do NOT count towards the total number of hours completed each semester.
 - Maintaining a minimum 3.0 GPA in each semester of study
 - 4) This scholarship is renewable for two years (4 consecutive semesters), provided you maintain your eligibility.
 - 5) If you choose to accept an assistantship during your study at UNM, you will forfeit the International Amigo Scholarship
 - 6) Scholarship offers, amounts, and maintenance criteria are subject to change depending on budget allocations.
-

I accept the International Amigo Scholarship. Additionally, I have read and understand the conditions and responsibilities outlined above. I also understand that not meeting these conditions and responsibilities will result in the forfeiture of the International Amigo Scholarship.

Signature:

Date: 4/2/2019

Printed Name: RAHUL KALAISELVAN

UNM ID: 101882764